

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 2370

Introduced by Assembly Member Chau

February 21, 2014

An act to amend Section 68566 of the Government Code, relating to court interpreters.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 2370, as introduced, Chau. Court interpreters.

Existing law provides for the regulation of court interpreters. Existing law designates specified persons with the title “certified court interpreter,” and prohibits the use of that title by other persons or entities.

This bill would make technical, nonsubstantive changes to that provision.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 68566 of the Government Code is
2 amended to read:
3 68566. A natural person who either (1) holds a valid certificate
4 as a certified court interpreter issued by a certification entity
5 approved by the Judicial Council, or (2) until January 1, 1996, is
6 named and maintained on the list of recommended court
7 interpreters previously established by the State Personnel Board
8 or established by an entity provisionally approved under
9 subdivision (b) of Section 68562, shall be designated a “certified
10 court interpreter.” No other person or entity shall use the title

- 1 “certified court interpreter,” or represent that he-~~or~~, she, or it is
- 2 certified to interpret in or for the courts.
